The screenshot shows the Adobe Sign dashboard. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the Adobe Sign logo and a search icon. Below the navigation bar, there's a main content area with several sections: a 'Select a workflow' dropdown menu, a '4 completed' status indicator, and a 'Recent Alerts' section. The 'Recent Alerts' section shows an alert for 'Invoice Payment Approval - COFFEEEEE' signed by Lana Lewis. There are also buttons for 'View Reports...' and 'See All'. The bottom of the dashboard has a sidebar with 'Additional Functions' like 'Add Template to Library' and 'Store frequently-used templates'.

The screenshot shows the 'Send a document for signature' interface. The top part has a yellow header with the Adobe Sign logo and a 'Home' link. Below the header, there's a 'Welcome, Mich' message. The main content area is titled 'Send a document for signature' and includes the text 'Request signatures on a new agreement, or start from your library of templates and workflows.' There are several buttons and options for sending documents, including 'Request signature', 'Request signature', and 'Request signature'. The interface is clean and modern, with a white background and blue accents.
